Mrs. Mary B. Talbert, former protégé of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Women, has been chosen to receive the Springfield Medal on Tuesday, June 23, at the Newark Convention of the American Federation for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Committee on the award issued the following statement:

"The award was made to Mrs. Mary B. Talbert, the former protégé of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Women, by the American Federation for the Advancement of Colored People. The award was made specifically for her consideration also the fact that Mrs. Talbert was twice President of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Women, and that all her life has been devoted to uplifting, developing, and advancing the cause of the negro in her community and the world at large."

The Committee made the award to her in recognition of her meritorious work in behalf of the colored race and the world at large. She is a woman of great ability, force, and with a broad mind. The Committee has done well in making this award to her. The award is a great honor to her.

COLOURED PEOPLE PROTEST REGULATION AT LINCOLN MEMORIAL MEETING

At the meeting of the Judiciary Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Women, Dr. James Evans, chairman of the Committee, addressed the following letter to the Committee:

"Dear Sir:"

"I have been asked to represent the colored people of the District of Columbia in your Committee. I wish to say that I am not a lawyer, but I have been appointed by the colored people of the District of Columbia to represent them in this matter."

"I have been asked to represent the colored people of the District of Columbia in your Committee. I wish to say that I am not a lawyer, but I have been appointed by the colored people of the District of Columbia to represent them in this matter."

"In conclusion, I wish to say that I am not a lawyer, but I have been appointed by the colored people of the District of Columbia to represent them in this matter."

"Sincerely yours,"

Legal Aid Society, Washington, D.C.

At the meeting of the Judiciary Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Women, Dr. James Evans, chairman of the Committee, addressed the following letter to the Committee:

"Dear Sir:"

"I have been asked to represent the colored people of the District of Columbia in your Committee. I wish to say that I am not a lawyer, but I have been appointed by the colored people of the District of Columbia to represent them in this matter."

"In conclusion, I wish to say that I am not a lawyer, but I have been appointed by the colored people of the District of Columbia to represent them in this matter."

"Sincerely yours,"

Legal Aid Society, Washington, D.C.