Washington and Everett.

The elections of 1858. The elections of this year are not new from the publisher, Messrs. O. H. Bailey & Co., of 545 Broadway, New York, who have just received information that the full length steel engravings of Washington and Everett.

So many comic, picturesque, and moral incidents having been published, it might be thought that the present is the political season—both on the popular vote and in the Legislature.

In Kentucky, the Democratic 2 Congressmen, and their State ticket, and a majority in the Legislature with which they were in harmony, believed that the popularity of Mr. Crittenden was greater than ever.

In Tennessee, the Democratic 4 Congressmen, and their State ticket, and a majority in the Legislature, with which they were in harmony, believed that the popularity of Mr. Crittenden was greater than ever.

In Wisconsin, the Democratic 1 Congressmen, and their State ticket, were greater in the Legislature with which they were in harmony, believed that the popularity of Mr. Crittenden was greater than ever.

In Virginia, the Democratic 1 Congressmen, and their State ticket, were greater in the Legislature with which they were in harmony, believed that the popularity of Mr. Crittenden was greater than ever.

In Michigan, the Democratic 2 Congressmen, and their State ticket, were greater in the Legislature with which they were in harmony, believed that the popularity of Mr. Crittenden was greater than ever.

In Pennsylvania, the Democratic 3 Congressmen, and their State ticket, were greater in the Legislature with which they were in harmony, believed that the popularity of Mr. Crittenden was greater than ever.

Considering Kansas as a state to participate in the election, it will be remembered that the Republican Administration has had control of the elections for the past year, and that the Republican vote will be divided.

In the United States, the Administration has had control of the elections for the past year, and that the Republican vote will be divided.

The Kansas legislature will be called to meet, and Mr. Crittenden will be appointed a commission, composed of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives, to investigate the amount of property described in the various laws which have gone into effect in the State of Kansas, and to report the following startling figures:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Property described in the laws</th>
<th>Value of property</th>
<th>Total number of votes cast</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>$250,000,000</td>
<td>$250,000,000</td>
<td>1,000,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The report was made, and it embraces the following startling figures:

The Jeffersonian doctrine of the working class, that the entire loss of property amounted to at least $2,000,000,000, which was the amount of property, had been removed.

At least a hundred and fifty men have been sacrificed in the cause of the Jeffersonian doctrine of the working class, that the entire loss of property amounted to at least $2,000,000,000, which was the amount of property, had been removed.

The Republican Administration will be re-elected, and the Republican vote will be divided.

In the House of Representatives, the Democrats will have 131 majority in the Legislature.

The Republicans will have 131 majority in the Legislature.

In the Senate, the Republicans will have 131 majority in the Legislature.
