American Anti-Slavery Society.

We devote ourselves again to the duty we have already undertaken, to the work of the American Anti-Slavery Society. It is the duty of every true freeman to do his best to promote the cause of freedom. We shall continue to work for the abolition of slavery, and we shall do so with all the energy and determination that we can command. We shall not rest until we have succeeded in our noble cause.

The Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee will meet at the next regular meeting of the Society, to consider the business of the day. We hope that all members of the Society will be present, and that they will do their best to promote the cause of freedom.

The Ohio Legislature.

It is a pleasure to see the Ohio Legislature working so well. The members of the Legislature are doing their best to promote the cause of freedom. They are working hard to pass laws that will abolish slavery. We are confident that they will be successful.

The Massachusetts Legislature.

The Massachusetts Legislature is also doing its best to promote the cause of freedom. The members of the Legislature are working hard to pass laws that will abolish slavery. We are confident that they will be successful.

The New York Legislature.

The New York Legislature is also doing its best to promote the cause of freedom. The members of the Legislature are working hard to pass laws that will abolish slavery. We are confident that they will be successful.

The Pennsylvania Legislature.

The Pennsylvania Legislature is also doing its best to promote the cause of freedom. The members of the Legislature are working hard to pass laws that will abolish slavery. We are confident that they will be successful.

The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

The Anti-Slavery Bugle is a weekly publication that is devoted to the cause of freedom. It is published by the American Anti-Slavery Society, and it is read by people all over the country. The Bugle is a valuable tool for the abolitionists, and it is a great help in the work of the Society.
