The Liberator.

Secret Anti-Slavery Convention of Philadelphia.

March 5th, 1851.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.

Mr. Garrison. — You are now in possession of a document containing a list of names of persons who have subscribed to this resolution. It is signed by some of the most prominent men in the country, and includes the names of many who have supported the cause of emancipation for many years, and who have done much to promote the abolition of slavery in the South. The resolution has been signed by the following gentlemen: —

The Great Emancipator.

The convention of the New England Emancipation Society met in the garrison, March 5th, 1851, and elected the following officers: —

The Liberator.