WASHINGTON.

GOLD MINES, &c.

As gold is in the world, and there seems none other than the other coin, so have we a large hope for the future, and which we may reasonably expect for the present. The gold of the world is in great demand, and we believe that the demand will continue to increase every year. The gold in the world is in great demand, and we believe that the demand will continue to increase every year. The gold in the world is in great demand, and we believe that the demand will continue to increase every year. The gold in the world is in great demand, and we believe that the demand will continue to increase every year. The gold in the world is in great demand, and we believe that the demand will continue to increase every year.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1861.

R. W. B. H. (Baltimore) was yesterday in Philadelphia, dying from the effects of his recent illness. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the country. He was a man of great ability, and his death is a great loss to the country.