CITY OF CHICAGO: PRIMARY ELECTIONS

Whereas the Board of Electors who have been chosen to administer the election for the office of President of the United States, under the Constitution, have declared that they have not been elected in the manner required by the Constitution, and

RESOLVED, That the Board of Electors do hereby declare themselves to be the duly elected Board of Electors of the City of Chicago, and that they will perform all the duties and functions of such Board, as provided by the Constitution and laws of the State of Illinois, and in accordance with the regulations and directions of the Board of State Commissioners of Elections, to be appointed by the Governor of the State of Illinois.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote of the Board of Electors, and was signed by the President and Secretary thereof.

THE MAYOR OF CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CITY OF CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF EDUCATION

The Commissioners of Education have received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of public schools in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of public schools in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CITY OF CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CITY OF CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CITY OF CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

CITY OF CHICAGO: REPORT OF THE MAYOR

Our Storm of Highways, by which the public is so grievously injured, is in great part due to the want of proper roads and bridges. The writer has received many letters from citizens of Chicago, expressing their entire satisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in that city, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.

The writer has also received many letters from citizens of other cities, expressing their entire dissatisfaction with the system of roads and bridges in their respective cities, and looking forward to the future with the assurance that the city will be made strong by them.