Congressional
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14, 1851.
SAVAGE.-The last bill before the Senate was the one to create a military academy at West Point.

The Senate adjourned at 12 o'clock, the 1st day of January, 1851, leaving open for action the following bills:

1. The bill to create a military academy at West Point.
2. The bill to authorize the Secretary of War to purchase land for the purpose of erecting a military academy.

The Senate was then adjourned until 2 o'clock on the 2nd day of January, 1851.

The Senate was then adjourned until 2 o'clock on the 2nd day of January, 1851.