WASHINGTON, April 19, 1861.

The Naval Forces of the United States, under the command of Commodore Schley, have arrived at New York, and are now being disposed of in various stations along the eastern coast. The Commodore has been ordered to report to the Secretary of the Navy, and it is expected that he will be given command of the fleet during the war.

BRANDON, Mississippi, April 19, 1861.

The Mississippi River has been declared in a state of emergency, and all vessels are ordered to take refuge in the Mississippi River. The Federal government has also ordered the construction of a fort at the mouth of the river.

NEW YORK, April 19, 1861.

The United States Navy has been ordered to take possession of the New York harbor. The fleet will be under the command of Commodore Schley, and will consist of ten warships.

THE FRENCHMEN'S TOUR IN NEW YORK.

The Frenchmen's Tour has been received with much interest in New York. The tour was arranged by the French government, and consists of a series of visits to the principal cities of the United States. The Frenchmen are expected to arrive in New York on the 20th of this month.

NEW YORK, May 12, 1861.

The United States Navy has been ordered to take possession of the New York harbor. The fleet will be under the command of Commodore Schley, and will consist of ten warships.

THE FRENCHMEN'S TOUR IN NEW YORK.

The Frenchmen's Tour has been received with much interest in New York. The tour was arranged by the French government, and consists of a series of visits to the principal cities of the United States. The Frenchmen are expected to arrive in New York on the 20th of this month.

NEW YORK, May 12, 1861.

The United States Navy has been ordered to take possession of the New York harbor. The fleet will be under the command of Commodore Schley, and will consist of ten warships.