FREDERICK DOUGLASS' PAPER.

Worcester, November 4, 1851.

LETTER FROM A JUDGE.

To the Editor of the "Frederick Douglass' Paper"—I am sorry, Sir, to say that your paper has been successfully suppressed. I am not aware that any law has been passed against it, but it is the opinion of the Supreme Court that it is a libel on the President of the United States, and that it is therefore illegal to publish it. The paper is now in the hands of the Government, and will be destroyed as soon as possible.

Respectfully,
A. WASHINGTON.
