FREDERICK DOUGLASS' PAPER.

LETTER FROM J. B. FREDERICK.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

To SUBSCRIBERS.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.

The following is a letter from Mr. J. B. Frederick to the Editor of the "Frederick's Paper." It is a request for information about the status of the "Union" of the Eastern States, which was formed in 1865.

Dear Sir: I am informed that you have a large number of subscribers in the Eastern States, and would be glad to learn from you how matters stand with regard to the "Union." I understand that it is the intention of the "Union" to secure the admission of these States into the Union, but I have been unable to obtain any information as to how far the object has been accomplished. I hope you will be able to give me some information on the subject. I have been a subscriber for some time, and am anxious to learn more about the progress of the movement. I remain, yours truly, J. B. Frederick.