New England Influence.

The Troy Whig僻its good article which gives us the idea that the influence of the New England is greater in most every way than it has ever been, and that it is not only increasing,

The paper says: 'The Anti-Union Whig, published at Boston, has been a great influence in the district of New England, and has done more to promote the success of the Union Whig, than any other paper in the country. The influence of the paper is rapidly increasing, and the man who will not support it, is neglecting a great opportunity.'

There is a new paper, the 'Anti-Union Whig,' published at Boston, which is doing more to promote the success of the Union Whig, than any other paper in the country. The influence of the paper is rapidly increasing, and the man who will not support it, is neglecting a great opportunity.

There is a newspaper called the 'Anti-Union Whig,' published at Boston, which is doing more to promote the success of the Union Whig, than any other paper in the country. The influence of the paper is rapidly increasing, and the man who will not support it, is neglecting a great opportunity.

There is a newspaper called the 'Anti-Union Whig,' published at Boston, which is doing more to promote the success of the Union Whig, than any other paper in the country. The influence of the paper is rapidly increasing, and the man who will not support it, is neglecting a great opportunity.

There is a newspaper called the 'Anti-Union Whig,' published at Boston, which is doing more to promote the success of the Union Whig, than any other paper in the country. The influence of the paper is rapidly increasing, and the man who will not support it, is neglecting a great opportunity.

There is a newspaper called the 'Anti-Union Whig,' published at Boston, which is doing more to promote the success of the Union Whig, than any other paper in the country. The influence of the paper is rapidly increasing, and the man who will not support it, is neglecting a great opportunity.