Tuesday, October 17, 1860.

Ohio All Right!

The returns from the state of Ohio are far more favorable than expected, and the total number of votes cast for President Lincoln is now about 22,000. The returns from the state are as follows:

- Lorain County: 6,000 votes for Lincoln, 5,000 for Grant.
- Summit County: 5,500 votes for Lincoln, 4,500 for Grant.
- Wayne County: 5,000 votes for Lincoln, 4,000 for Grant.
- Ashtabula County: 4,500 votes for Lincoln, 3,500 for Grant.
- Portage County: 4,000 votes for Lincoln, 3,000 for Grant.
- Trumbull County: 3,500 votes for Lincoln, 2,500 for Grant.
- Stark County: 3,000 votes for Lincoln, 2,000 for Grant.
- Mahoning County: 2,500 votes for Lincoln, 1,500 for Grant.
- Richland County: 2,000 votes for Lincoln, 1,000 for Grant.
- Crawford County: 1,500 votes for Lincoln, 500 for Grant.
- Huron County: 1,000 votes for Lincoln, 300 for Grant.

The total number of votes cast in all the counties of Ohio is now about 60,000.

The returns from other states are as follows:

- Pennsylvania: 10,000 votes for Lincoln, 9,000 for Grant.
- New York: 8,000 votes for Lincoln, 7,000 for Grant.
- Illinois: 6,000 votes for Lincoln, 5,000 for Grant.
- Indiana: 4,000 votes for Lincoln, 3,000 for Grant.
- Michigan: 2,000 votes for Lincoln, 1,000 for Grant.
- Delaware: 1,000 votes for Lincoln, 500 for Grant.

The total number of votes cast in all the states is now about 60,000. The returns from the remaining states are not yet available.

The Republican party has won a clear majority of the vote in all the states.

The returns from California are expected in the next few days. The state is now divided into two districts, and the total number of votes cast in each district is as follows:

- District 1: 10,000 votes for Lincoln, 9,000 for Grant.
- District 2: 8,000 votes for Lincoln, 7,000 for Grant.

The total number of votes cast in California is now about 18,000.

The returns from other states are still pending. The total number of votes cast in all the states is now about 60,000.

The Republican party has won a clear majority of the vote in all the states.